14 May 1976.

Dear Dan.

Upon my return from a very long trip overseas I found your letter for which many thanks. Yes it has been a long road rough at times but fascinating and rewarding for me all of the way. I will be retiring on June 30th and thereafter whatever I do I expect to have a lot more free time than I have had in the past. I will be in New York and we will get together.

Thanks furthering of me.

See you soon.

As ever

Subject: 1 May 1941

Dear Dick,

I would be remiss if I were to let the date of 1 May 1976 go by without sending you a note of some kind. It seems that the older we get, the more important the past becomes.....so on this occasion, the 35th Anniversary of your entry (and mine) into the United States Army, I am sending you a most hearty Congratulations.

For some reason the "Prime-movers" of the Annual Celebration for the "Old 14th" are not getting together this year (nor last) so at this time I can't even invite you to it? Be that as it may, Dick, I did want you to know that on every First Of May, I always drink a toast to my friends and comrades from Fort Ethan Allen. And this year will have particular importance since I recently read of your coming (?) retirement. You will be the last of the Mohegans, that served at Ethan Allen, on active duty in the Army. Dick, my hat is off to you, in more ways than one. Sincere best regards.....and all the best.

Jolly good show!

Most sincerely and fraternally yours,

Donald W. McCluskey (Lt Col AUS - GS (TC) Retired)
